

Please continue to require local phone companies to provide access to the phone lines under the current regulatory policies that allow independent Internet Service Providers to provide DSL and other connections at reasonable prices.

In our area, the ISPs provide much better service, at a better price, largely because it is a competitive market. Please allow this to continue and don't let the phone companies be local monopolies of my phone line.